Highland Square

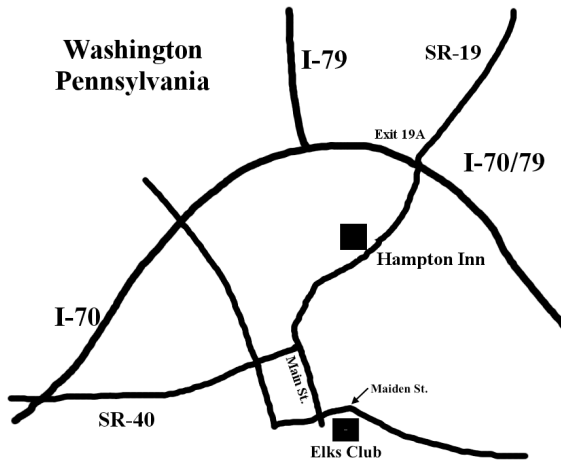

Highland Square is led by Elissa Hock-Wimmer on piano, and has its origins in the SCD music group The Music Makars. Fred Mamula (fiddle) and Jack Lindberg (flute/whistle/banjo) formed an integral part of The Music Makars for many years. Elissa was mentored by Etienne Ozorak and played piano for The Music Makars. Arthur McNair (Accordion) learned to play accordion while listening to the special Etienne Music Makars sound. Each member contributes a unique sound and musical flavor to all the Scottish country dance sets, bringing an energy and beauty to the music and dance floor.

Tine MacKay

Tine was first introduced to Scottish Country Dancing while her husband Eric was stationed in Dunoon, Scotland. Later, in Ohio, Tine and Eric naively attended a St. Andrew's Dinner, getting up during the participation part of the evening, and the insidious claws of Scottish Country Dancing were permanently placed.

In 1995, Tine started dancing in Columbus, OH. She began teaching in Indianapolis, IN, and received her teaching certificate in 2004. Since then, Tine has traveled extensively to attend and teach workshops and classes throughout the world.

Tine currently lives in Mountville, PA, and teaches the Harrisburg Scottish Country Dancers.

Washington, PA

Our Highland Ball will take place at a new location this year: The Elks Club in Washington PA. This is a lovely location with a beautiful two-story ballroom and a wooden floor we are looking forward to dancing on. This is a popular location for weddings and dance events, and we are thrilled to be there this year.

We have reserved a block of rooms until March 2nd, 2018 at the nearby Hampton Inn. There is a special rate of $90+tax per night for a room with two double beds, with full breakfast. Refer to "Pittsburgh Scottish Dancers" to get this rate.
